

Can Modal Answers

Fill in the right form of the modal verb “can”:

0. Can I say something, please?

1. We cannot leave them alone!
2. I can answer your question.
3. Can anyone help me, please?
4. You cannot run because of your broken leg.
5. Michael can play the guitar very well.

Fill in the right form of the modal verb forms “could” or “to be able to” together with the verb in brackets:

0. She could have her brother's skateboard.

1. I am able to help you with your problem.
2. Is she able to swim?
3. They are not able to stay at home alone.
4. Could you look after your sister?
5. I could not hear what you said!