Dialogue 4

Linda: Hello! You work here, don't you? I would like to buy a new blouse.

Brian: Yes! I make money this way, apart from my studies! It is better to earn money on my own!

Linda: Yes, and harder! Hahaha!

Brian: That's right. It is better to go shopping! Hahaha.

Linda: Yes, but it is best to travel around the world.

Brian: Yes, but doing that is the most expensive way, and the wages are getting lower. It is getting more and more difficult all the time.

Linda: That's why I am looking for a cheaper blouse. I have already seen most of the blouses here. Do you have a longer one also?

Brian: I'll find the best one for you!

Linda: That is so nice of you. I will continue to look for the right one too!

Brian: What about these ones?

Linda: Do you have a green one? I need a new one!

Brian: Yes, look at these! For the price of one!

Linda: They are beautiful! How much are they?

Brian: They'll cost you a kiss as a special offer on Valentine's day ... just for my loveliest customer!

Linda: Hey! You are crazy! Hmmmm Let's see Ok! I will take these, and that's for you! (She blows him a little kiss with her fingers.)

Brian: Hahaha! Thank you, would you like to watch today's soccer match with me? It is a very exciting one!

Brian: I will call you. I have your number.

Brian: Yes, the one from the party! Bye!

Grammar 4 A: Adjectives & Comparison :

| | |
|--|---|
| Adjectives | Examples: |
| modify nouns (pronouns) usually by providing description about them. | "the old castle"; "I am fine ", "a good friend", "He is as strong as his brother." |
| Comparison of Adjectives: | Examples: |
| You use the endings –er (comparative) and –est (superlative) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> for short words with one syllable and for words that end in –le, -er, -y and –ow You use more and most <ol style="list-style-type: none"> for words with two and more syllables and adverbs ending in –ly (exception early – earlier – earlies).
